Chapter 1 by Grace K

Barefoot, Shirtless, Auctioned,
Sold to the highest bidder,
a life of chains,
illiterate, unimportant,
except to the washing,
stripped of freedom,
shipped like cattle,
deported from africa,
and sold to the highest bidder, Worth a dollar,
lead to believe there is no hope,
chance of another life,
until escaping in the night,
But that's impossible,
so we're sold again,
passing through different homes,
in shackles and chains,
chained to despair
